2007 SUNYAC BASEBALL TOURNAMENT TO BEGIN THIS WEEKEND

Cortland looks for third consecutive title

FREDONIA, NY – All four teams from the 2006 SUNYAC Baseball Tournament are back in hopes of capturing the 2007 conference title and automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. Cortland will host the Championships for the eleventh consecutive season.

Cortland's 11-3 conference record was 2 games better than second seeded Brockport at 9-5. Plattsburgh, the third seed in this year's Championship, also finished at 9-5. Since Brockport won both games against the top seeded Red Dragons during the regular season, the Golden Eagles earned the second seed over Plattsburgh. Oneonta comes in as the fourth seed, with an 8-6 conference record.

The four team, double elimination SUNYAC tournament begins Friday, May 4 at 10 a.m. when No. 3 Plattsburgh battles No. 2 Brockport. The Golden Eagles split with the Cardinals in their two conference games earlier this season winning game one 9-6 but losing the second 2-10
