Cortland Clinches Sixth Consecutive SUNYAC Field Hockey Championship

FREDONIA, N.Y. – Head Coach Cynthia Wetmore guided the Cortland field hockey team to its sixth straight SUNYAC Championship with a 3-0 win over New Paltz on Saturday.

The Red Dragons are ranked tenth nationally in the National Field Hockey Coaches Association Poll. Cortland is currently 12-1 on the season. Their only loss came against #9 Springfield, 3-2, in overtime. Cortland finished 5-0 in SUNYAC play, outscoring its opponents 12-4 in league contests.

Cortland was led by Becky Osier and Kelli Johnson who had eight points each in conference play. Osier netted four goals and Johnson chipped in with three goals and two assists. Kayla Chambers added two goals and two assists for the Red Dragons during SUNYAC play. Jessica Anderson minded the nets for 325.19 minutes and recorded 13 saves while only allowing three goals for a .812 save percentage.
