Plattsburgh's Curle, Brockport's Carron are Coaches of the Year

Plattsburgh men's basketball coach Tom Curle and Brockport's women's coach Michele Carron have been named the State University of New York Athletic Conference Coaches of the Year after guiding their respective teams to conference championships.

Curle won his third straight SUNYAC title as Plattsburgh ran the table against its sister schools – 16-0 during the regular season and 3-0 in the playoffs. The honor is Curle's second in as many years. To date, the Cardinals have gone 26-2, improving Curle's record to 96-46 in five seasons as the Plattsburgh coach.

Carron was named Coach of the Year for the fourth time while at Brockport (other times: 1992-93, 1996-97 and 2004-05). She has coached the Golden Eagles to three conference championships – the other two coming in 2002-03 and 2004-05. In 16 seasons at Brockport, Carron has a 260-166 record.
