Cortland wins 10th straight SUNYAC championship

CORTLAND – Rachel Cornwell (Fairport/Fairport) scored with 20 seconds left to lift Cortland to its 10th consecutive SUNYAC Women's Lacrosse Championship as the Red Dragons defeated Brockport, 14-13, at SUNY Cortland. After earning the conference's NCAA Tournament automatic bid, Cortland has received a first-round bye and play again on Saturday, May 10 at The College of New Jersey against the winner of Wednesday's Eastern College-Union College showdown.

Tournament MVP Danielle Torre (Massapequa/Massapequa) led the Red Dragon attack with four goals and two assists in the championship game. Elizabeth Acee (Syracuse/Henninger) added three goals and one assist while Cornwell finished with three goals. Winning goalkeeper Deanne Abell (Fulton/G. Ray Bodley) stopped seven shots.

Lexie Goodhart (Syracuse/Bishop Ludden) led Brockport with four goals and three assists while Julia Decker (Penn Yan/Penn Yan) scored three goals. Goalie Jamie Kaminsky (Oakdale/Sayville) had 10 saves.

The Golden Eagles led 5-1 during the first half before Cortland took a 7-6 lead into halftime. Goodhart tied the game at 13-all with 43 seconds to go before Cornwell's decider.

During the semifinals, Cornwell and Jessie Fritz (Baldwinsville/C.W. Baker) scored four goals apiece during Cortland's 16-7 win over Fredonia. Decker had four goals and three assists in Brockport's 17-12 victory over Buffalo State.
